PLENTY OF TALK

And a Number of Matters Disposed of by the Council.

Opera House License Passed—About Cleaning Sidewalks—Licensing Peddlers and Numerous Other Propositions Discussed.

The city council met in regular session last night, with President Hickey in the chair and the following members present: Kiplinger, Snyder, Standish, Chaplin, Jackson, Van Eiman, Allen, Kemper, McVey, Brotherton and Foley.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.
L. Van Pelt was granted permission to move a building on High street.

Scott street property owners petitioned to have Scott street graded, and H. A. Moore petitioned for permission to grade that street abutting his property. Both petitions were referred to the street committee.

A number of north side property owners petitioned to have a 12-inch sewer constructed on Grand avenue from Main to West street. The petition was received, the engineer instructed to make an estimate and the solicitor to draft the necessary ordinance.

The Lima Telephone company petitioned for permission to set poles on Elm street, from Harrison avenue to Bellefontaine avenue. Granted, provided poles are set under direction of the street committee.

Matter of corner lot assessment upon lot No. 650 was referred to the engineer, solicitor and street committee. The lot is owned by T. T. E. T. and E. B. Mitchell, who claim that under the recent decision of the Supreme court relating to corner lot assessments, assessments had already been paid in excess of the amount provided for by law. The solicitor said that there was another case of a lot at Main and Second streets which he would advise the council to have investigated.

Mr. Brotherton said an assessment against Robert Miller's lot at Harrison avenue and Elm street should also be investigated. This was also referred to the solicitor and street committee, with power to act.

A. E. Stone notified the city by a written communication that he was pumping water from his cellar on Metcalf street at the expense of the city. The matter was referred to Mr. Kemper.

The fire committee recommended that copies of the rules and ordinance governing the fire department should be printed and furnished to the members of the department.

Mr. Brotherton advised the fire committee to learn the probable cost of the printing, and so amended to that effect a motion to adopt the recommendation.

Mr. Metheany suggested that the ordinance rules be printed on cards and tacked up in the department stations.

The matter was referred back to the fire committee.

Chief Haller reported seven arrests for last week.

The ordinance providing a license for transient dealers was given two readings with suspended rules, and then upon a motion to refer it to the finance committee with power to fill in the blanks, the rates of license for the different classes of transient dealers, was lost.

Some of the members seemed to be of the opinion that the ordinance would compel Allen county farmers to pay a license.

Mr. Foley stated that no ordinance could be passed so long as he is a resident of the county.

Mr. Kemper wanted each member of the council to have a copy of the ordinance to study during the coming week. A motion to have copies furnished was carried.

The ordinance to prevent persons from driving on sidewalks was read the second and third times and was tabled.

The ordinance to license theatre, etc., was read the third time and passed.

A resolution to construct sidewalks on Oak street, from Vine to Kibby street, was read the third time and passed.

Mr. Standish said that he and Mr. Snyder had met with the county commissioners and had learned from them that the city could make arrangements to construct a post house on the grounds at the county infirmary.

Mr. Brotherton said that he was in hope that some philanthropic individual would present the city with a piece of ground and that some one else would build a hospital for the city. He said that the physicians were agitating the question and something was likely to be accomplished toward securing such an institution in the near future. As regards the mail box cases he mentioned two cases of small pox in the city when the patients were not moved to a pest house and the disease died.

Mr. Standish moved that the chair appoint a committee of three to confer with the county commissioners with power to contract a lease on a piece of land at the infirmary, on which land a pest house might be built at any future time.

Mr. McVey moved to amend by requesting the committee to get a proposition from the commissioners and submit the proposition to the council. The motion as amended was carried, and Messrs. Standish, Brotherton and Van Eiman were appointed to constitute the committee.

Mr. Kemper moved to instruct the solicitor to draft an ordinance providing that after a snow fall the property owners on the following named streets shall clean their sidewalks, and when they do not clean the walks within a certain number of hours the street commissioner shall clean them: On Wayne, North, High, Market, Spring, Kibby and Vine streets, running east and west, and Elizabeth, Main, Union, Tanner, Jackson and Pine streets, running north and south.

Mr. Allen thought Mr. Kemper's motion should be passed.
Mr. McVey said there was already an ordinance providing for the cleaning of sidewalks, and if the police would see that it was enforced no new ordinance would be necessary.

Mr. Metheany said that the street commissioner was already being paid for cleaning the walks, and he was doing his work fairly well.

Mr. Kemper said that he would like to inform Mr. Metheany that the street commissioner was never known to clean a walk. He only pressed the snow down with his plow.

Mr. Kemper's motion was lost.
Messrs. Kemper, Kiplinger, McVey and Van Eiman voted yes.

Mr. Van Eiman said that the fire department wanted to trade one of the old horses for a new horse and to pay $50 extra for the new animal. Referred to the fire committee with power to act.

years ago a test well was put down near Miller City, a hamlet six miles west of here, and a quantity of oil found, which is said to be equal to any Pennsylvania oil. At that time five-year leases had been made, which were afterward bought up by the Standard Oil company, and operations ceased at once. The leases are now expiring, and other parties are entering the field with a view of developing it. Many think oil can be found in this section in as paying quantities as at North Baltimore.

Accomplished at Deshler by Det.
 Geo. Peck, of this City.

Detective George Peck, of the H. & D., has just completed a piece of work at Deshler, and as a result of his efforts three young inhabitants will probably find in penitentiary.

A few nights before Christmas on the H. & D. at Deshler, a broken into and some of the commodities, on Christmas eve a car of the C. H. & D. was broken open a box of slot machines, a kebrandy, two hams and a lot of whiskey and fine cut tobacco etc.

Detective Peck went to work the case and a few days ago H.
 Zimmerman, Joe Pfaff and Re-over to the grand jury at Napo-on charges of grand larceny. On count of former experience the authorities at Deshler, Mr. Peck refused to trust the cases to private trials there, but took them to Napoleon, where he recently another Deshler boy indicted placing obstructions upon the C.
 & D. track at the latter place.

Detective Peck also secured most of the stolen property, which had been buried in sawdust at a mill.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Geo. W. Cox Frightfully and Fatally Mangled.

One Arm Torn from His Body and the Other Badly Mangled—An Accident at the Steel Works Results Fatally.

George W. Cox, a well-known carpenter, who for several years past was a car builder employed by the Lima Locomotive and Machine Co., at their car works in south Lima, was caught by a line shaft at the Lima Steel Works, east of the car works, about 5:15 o'clock this morning and horribly and probably fatally injured.

One arm was torn off at the shoulder and the other was broken in several places, by being wrapped around the revolving shaft.

Cox was not a regular employe at works, but belonged at the car works and was only recently transferred to the steel works on account of there being no work for him at the other place and he did not want to be idle.

This morning he was at work on some timbers above the main line shaft, between the engine room and machinery department. The line shaft is about twelve feet above the floor. Cox was standing upon a ladder which rested against the shaft.

In reaching from the ladder, his coat, which he had not removed, was caught and quickly wound around the shaft. The shaft was making between 200 and 250 revolutions a minute, and in an instant Cox's body was being

WOUND FROM THE SHAFT.

Engineer O. W. Regan was standing at his post when he heard Cox cry out in agony, and at once turned the wheel closing the throttle valve and soon the machinery stopped. As the speed of the shaft decreased, Cox's limp and mangled form dropped down. The right arm had been torn off within a few inches of the shoulder and buried under the shaft. The sight was a sickening one, the blood gushing from the horrible wound at the poor man's shoulder, while the arm lay quivering in a heap a short distance away.

Every article of clothing above the man's waist had been wound around the shaft, the form being jerked through a small space between the shaft and the timbers above it. Finally the resistance of the body was sufficient to tear the clothing and as the machinery slowed down, the mangled form dropped down, buried of clothing above the waist.

Cox's face and body

was covered with blood

and it was impossible to tell the extent of his other injuries. He was perfectly unconscious and requested to be taken home before he died, as he seemed to realize that his injuries were fatal.

Groesjeun's ambulance and Dr. Ter-williger were summoned, and as soon as the wounded man was given an opiate to deaden the pain, kind friends placed him upon the swinging stretcher in the ambulance and he was taken to his home on south Pine street, near Boreka.

After Cox's home was reached Dr.
 Terwilliger made an examination of the unfortunate man's wounds and found that aside

from the mangled arms
 the victim had not sustained serious injury. He sustained a scalp wound
 fusely but the skull was not fractured. It is thought that he received the scalp wound when he dropped head foremost from the shaft to the floor twelve feet below.

The right arm had been torn off within an inch or two of the shoulder, and the remaining portion of the flesh was torn into shreds from the shoulder. The left shoulder was dislocated and the long bone of the arm between the shoulder and elbow was crushed.
 The poor man's body and legs were only slightly bruised.

The injured man began to grow weaker almost immediately after being taken home and about 11 o'clock he lost consciousness entirely. Dr.
 Terwilliger states that he does not think there were any internal injuries, but that the shock was sufficient to prove fatal.

At 2:05 o'clock this afternoon the unfortunate man died without having regained consciousness.

The deceased was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and 7 children.

Miss Gertrude Cox, whose death was announced in the Times-Democrat a

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Geo. W. Cox Frightfully and Fatally Mangled.

One Arm Torn from His Body and the Other Badly Mangled—An Accident at the Steel Works Results Fatally.

 Lima Locomotive and Machine Co.,
 caught by a line shaft at the Lima
 horribly and probably fatally injured.

 revolving shaft.

 and was only recently transferred to
 place and he did not want to be idle.

 shaft, between the engine room and
 floor. Cox was standing upon a ladder which rested against the shaft.

 tween 200 and 250 revolutions a minute, and in an instant Cox's body was

 and soon the machinery stopped. As
 the speed of the shaft decreased,
 shoulder and buried under the
 rible wound at the poor man's shoulder,
 heap a short distance away.

 as the machinery slowed down,
 the mangled form dropped down,
 buried of clothing above the waist.

 he seemed to realize that his injuries
 were fatal.

 as the wounded man was given an
 Pine street, near Boreka.

After Cox's home was reached Dr.

 the victim had not sustained serious
 fractured. It is thought that he re-
 shaft to the floor twelve feet below.

The right arm had been torn off
 within an inch or two of the shoulder,
 the shoulder and elbow was crushed.
 The poor man's body and legs were
 only slightly bruised.

 weaker almost immediately after be-
 he lost consciousness entirely. Dr.
 to prove fatal.

 ing regained consciousness.

 of age and leaves a wife and 7 children.
